Dear XXXXXX:

This letter is in response to your request dated October 15, 2010, as supplemented by correspondence dated December 7, and December 20, 2010, in which you requested a waiver of the 60-day rollover requirement contained in section 408(d)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code").

The following facts and representations have been submitted under penalty of perjury in support of the ruling requested:

Taxpayer A, age 72, represents that he received a distribution from IRA X totaling Amount A on Date 1. Taxpayer A asserts that his failure to accomplish a rollover of Amount A within the 60-day period prescribed by section 408(d)(3) was due to an error made by Financial Advisor G of Financial Institution A. Taxpayer A also represents that Amount A has not been used for any other purpose.

Taxpayer A represents that acting on the advice of Financial Advisor G he initiated a rollover of funds from IRA X to another IRA with Financial Institution C. Taxpayer A asserts that he was told by Financial Advisor G that he could help him reach his long-term financial goals by investing in Program D. Taxpayer A provided Financial Advisor G with information showing that Amount A was held in IRA X. Taxpayer A relied on Financial Advisor G to roll over Amount A into a rollover IRA at Financial Institution C. However, on Date 2, Financial Advisor G incorrectly deposited Amount A into Account Z, a joint non-IRA account maintained at Financial Institution C. Taxpayer A represents that he believed that Account Z was in an IRA account. Documentation provided indicates that Financial Advisor G incorrectly deposited Amount A to Account Z, a non-IRA account.

Based on the facts and representations, you request a ruling that the Internal Revenue Service waive the 60 day rollover requirement contained in section 408(d)(3) of the Code with respect to the distribution of Amount A from IRA X.

Section 408(d)(1) of the Code provides that, except as otherwise provided in section 408(d), any amount paid or distributed out of an IRA shall be included in gross income by the payee or distributee, as the case may be, in the manner provided under section 72 of the Code.

Section 408(d)(3) of the Code defines, and provides the rules applicable to IRA rollovers.

Section 408(d)(3)(A) of the Code provides that section 408(d)(1) of the Code does not apply to any amount paid or distributed out of an IRA to the individual for whose benefit the IRA is maintained if:

(i) the entire amount received (including money and any other property) is paid into an IRA for the benefit of such individual not later than the 60th day after the day on which the individual receives the payment or distribution; or

(ii) the entire amount received (including money and any other property) is paid into an eligible retirement plan (other than an IRA) for the benefit of such individual not later than the 60th day after the date on which the payment or distribution is received, except that the maximum amount which may be paid into such plan may not exceed the portion of the amount received which is includible in gross income (determined without regard to section 408(d)(3)).

Section 408(d)(3)(B) of the Code provides that section 408(d)(3) does not apply to any amount described in section 408(d)(3)(A)(i) received by an individual from an IRA if at any time during the 1-year period ending on the day of such receipt such individual received any other amount described in section 408(d)(3)(A)(i) from an IRA which was not includible in gross income because of the application of section 408(d)(3).

Section 408(d)(3)(D) of the Code provides a similar 60-day rollover period for partial rollovers.

Section 408(d)(3)(E) of the Code provides that the rollover provisions of section 408(d) do not apply to any amount required to be distributed under section 408(a)(6).

Section 408(d)(3)(I) of the Code provides that the Secretary may waive the 60-day requirement under sections 408(d)(3)(A) and 408(d)(3)(D) of the Code where the failure to waive such requirement would be against equity or good conscience, including casualty, disaster, or other events beyond the reasonable control of the individual subject to such requirement. Only distributions that occurred after December 31, 2001, are eligible for the waiver under section 408(d)(3)(I) of the Code.

Rev. Proc. 2003-16, 2003-4 I.R.B. 359 (January 27, 2003) provides that in determining whether to grant a waiver of the 60-day rollover requirement pursuant to section 408(d)(3)(I), the Service will consider all relevant facts and circumstances, including: (1) errors committed by a financial institution; (2) inability to complete a rollover due to death, disability, hospitalization, incarceration, restrictions imposed by a foreign country or postal error, (3) the use of the amount distributed (for example, in the case of payment by check, whether the check was cashed); and (4) the time elapsed since the distribution occurred.

The information presented and documentation submitted by Taxpayer A is consistent with his assertion that his failure to accomplish a timely rollover was caused by an error made by Financial Advisor G of Financial Institution A, which resulted in Amount A being deposited into a non-IRA account.

Therefore, pursuant to section 408(d)(3)(I) of the Code, the Service hereby waives the 60-day rollover requirement with respect to the distribution of Amount A, from IRA X. Taxpayer A is granted a period of 60 days from the issuance of this ruling letter to contribute Amount A to a rollover IRA. Provided all other requirements of section 408(d)(3) of the Code, except the 60-day requirement, are met with respect to such contribution, Amount A will be considered a valid rollover contribution within the meaning of section 408(d)(3) of the Code.
